Restart the Party : Join the Movement

Other candidates have started their attacks and negative campaigning...

I am honored to announce that Glenn Clark has done outstanding work for my office and my constituents in his role as a part-time legislative assistant.

I am proud of the work that Glenn is doing in helping me develop conservative issues in the state house such as opposing RFID and the personhood amendment.

He understands these issues better than anyone. Hiring people who have other roles in politics is nothing new. Other candidates for Secretary of State also have people working for them who had other roles in politics such as Michelle McManus has Beth Thompson, and Ruth Johnson has Chris Ward.

These are all good people who contribute to pushing conservative issues in our state.

The attacks on Glenn need to stop. Desperate career politicians who haven't done their leg work in this race are now taking this race into the gutter at the last second.

I will continue to run a clean campaign based on the issues. I encourage my opponents to do the same.

Sincerely,

Paul Scott
Candidate for Secretary of State
