ARTICLE XII

SALARY SCHEDULE

Administrative Compensation

Compensation shall be determined using four (4) factors: 1) the position's responsibility index, 2) additional weeks beyond the teacher calendar days, 3) experience as an administrator, and 4) educational attainment.

The base shall equal:

2006-2007	2007-2008	2008-2009
$61,500.00	$63,000.00	$64,500.00

The base assumes the minimum education of a Master Degree. The following lateral educational steps are as follows:

Master Degree + 18	= 3% of base
Masters Degree + 30/60	= 6% of base
Doctorial Degree	= 9% of base

Additional weeks shall be computed at 2 ½% of the base or every extra week (5 days) beyond the teacher calendar days as scheduled with the superintendent of schools. The director of technology will work 48 weeks with a formula of 2.4% of the base for year two and three. The director of athletics will work 48 weeks without the additional formula.

The experience factor shall be calculated at ½% (.005) times the base for each year of administrative experience.

The responsibility factor, by assignment, shall be as follows:

High School Principal	1.25	48 weeks
Middle School Principal	1.20	44 weeks*
Director of Special Education	1.15	48 weeks*
Elementary Principal	1.10	41 weeks
H.S. & M.S. Asst. Principals	1.10	41 weeks
Special Education Supervisors	1.10	41 weeks
Director of Athletics and Recreation	1.08	48 weeks
Elementary Asst. Principal	1.05	41 weeks
Director of Technology	1.05	48 weeks

*See attached letter of agreement.

Formula Example:

The following example illustrates how each administrator's salary will be calculated:

An elementary principal with a Master Degree plus 30 hours who works 41 weeks and has been with the district five years:

Elementary Principal	Base Salary	= $61,500.00
Responsibility Factor	1.10 (10% of base)	= $6,150.00
Weeks worked	41 Weeks (4 extra weeks times 2.5%)	= $6,150.00
Degree	MA + 30 (6%)	= $3,690.00
Experience with District	5 years (5 times ½ %)	= $1,537.50
	TOTAL	= $79,028.00

ARTICLE XIII
